

What uses power in my house?

There are many different appliances that we use every day to help make our lives easier. At the end of each cord, draw something that you use in your house that uses electricity.

